Welcome from the President of INSOL Europe, Catherine Ottaway

Let's meet with new horizons!

In October 2014, and for the first time in INSOL Europe history, the Annual Congress is to be held at the Hilton on the European side of Istanbul. Overlooking the Bosphorus, the hotel is located just minutes away from the city's business, shopping, entertainment districts and nearby Dolmabahce Palace.

"As a bridge between Europe and the Middle East, Turkey is a region of growing importance and as main sponsor, the INSOL Europe Congress always presents Dentons with a great opportunity to enhance our industry presence, connect with our peers and identify new opportunities."

Andreas Ziegenhagen, Partner,
Dentons - Main Sponsor of the INSOL
Europe Congress 2014

This is a unique venue in the largest city in Turkey, heart of its culture, economy and history, with its successive names Byzantium, Constantinople and now, Istanbul. With its strategic position along the Silk Road, the Black Sea, the Golden Horn and the Mediterranean, the city kept the trace of the four empires that it served, Roman, Byzantine, Latin and Ottoman.

This rich diversity may be found in the fantastic museums of the towns (archeological, Turkish and Islamic Arts, Modern Istanbul...), the mosques (Blue mosque, Saint Sophie, Süleymaniye...), Topkapi palace, the bazaars, the cisterns, the famous Turkish baths... Modernity is also everywhere in this very dynamic city from which you will feel the great energy of the street, the cafes and restaurants, the various shops.

Our Technical Committee is chaired by Ian Grier (SGH Martineau LLP) and Professor Michael Veder (RESOR N.V. and Radboud University Nijmegen), assisted by Evert Verwey (CMS Derks Star Busmann). With their panels, they are already busy preparing to provide an excellent Technical Programme, interacting with all INSOL Europe's groups (lenders, turnaround, anti-fraud, academics, judicial, young members...). We had very positive feedback from the Paris Congress and this new team will work hard to do even better! The technical issues will be shared and discussed during the great networking opportunities with insolvency professionals from more than 30 countries.

Warm thanks to our INSOL Europe team, our members preparing our Technical Programme and to all our faithful sponsors for their continued support.

I look forward to seeing you in Istanbul.

Ian Grier & Michael Veder

A new European approach to insolvency?

Europe faces a severe economic and social crisis. The European Union is taking action to promote economic recovery, boost investment and safeguard employment but the crisis has a direct effect on people and businesses. The number of failing businesses has increased explosively over the last few years. About a quarter of those bankruptcies have a cross-border element. It is estimated that about 50% of all new businesses do not survive the first five years of their life. The Commission has announced plans for implementing a new European approach to business failure and insolvency, including the modernisation of the EU Regulation on Insolvency Proceedings, to help sound companies survive and to encourage entrepreneurs to get a second chance.

The Istanbul Congress will be focused mainly on new approaches across Europe towards (cross-border) insolvency, how local and European laws have developed to deal with the crisis and the Commission's plans for approximation of the Member States' insolvency laws. The Congress will consider the possibilities in different European jurisdictions for financing and other crucial tools to save as many companies as possible where there is a viable business.

We hope to meet you all in October 2014 in the fascinating and beautiful city of Istanbul and trust that you will enthusiastically join with us in discussing interesting developments in the world of insolvency and restructuring.

"For Pluta, INSOL Europe is the leading European association in the field of restructuring and insolvency. We value the platform INSOL Europe offers for cross border dialogues with experts from all over Europe."

"Istanbul is a sensational and inspiring city, in constant development. The city is not only one of Europe's top attractions but also a bridge between cultures. This perfectly mirrors the Annual Congress of INSOL Europe, with its excellent technical programme and the opportunity to meet insolvency experts from around the globe."
Lucas Kortmann, RESOR, Congress General Sponsor of the INSOL Europe Congress 2014

"The INSOL Europe Annual Congress always provides invaluable networking opportunities with industry professionals in outstanding locations. HERMANN are delighted to be sponsoring the event once again in the inspiring setting of Istanbul."
Daniel Friedemann Fritz, HERMANN RWS, General Sponsor of the INSOL Europe Congress 2014
