

Essays on European Company Law CJEU jurisprudence on freedom of establishment

The following topics are available:

1. CJEU, 27.9.1988, Daily Mail, C-81/87, ECLI:EU:C:1988:456
2. CJEU, 9.3.1999, Centros, C-212/97, ECLI:EU:C:1999:126
3. CJEU, 5.11.2002, Überseering, C-208/00, ECLI:EU:C:2002:632
4. CJEU, 30.9.2003, Inspire Art, C-167/01, ECLI:EU:C:2003:512
5. CJEU, 13.12.2005, SEVIC, C-411/03, ECLI:EU:C:2005:762
6. CJEU, 16.12.2008, Cartesio, C-210/06, ECLI:EU:C:2008:723
7. CJEU, 12.7.2012, VALE, C-378/10, ECLI:EU:C:2012:440
8. CJEU, 25.10.2017, Polbud, C-106/16, ECLI:EU:C:2017:804

The essay should critically evaluate the CJEU judgment and its consequences. It must be in English and it must not exceed a maximum length of 25.000 characters (including blanks and footnotes).

Students who wish to take part are asked to sign up and indicated their preferred topic by 29 October 2019 via the E-Learning-System (Course: "Essays European Company Law WS 2019/20").

Topics will be assigned on 1 November 2019.

Deadline for the submission of the essays is Friday 20 December 2019.

Students who get a pass grade on the essay will be awarded 6 ECTS.

Prof. Dr. Jessica Schmidt, LL.M.